

Peace of Mind Body & Soul

The clinic was packed with demonstrations focused on how to integrate in natural care options for your horse:

- Interactive animal communication session - Leggs revealed his buddies were not in the same pasture.
- How energy work affects a horse
- Equine Raindrop Technique
- Equine massage and muscle healing techniques
- How to apply acupressure; several key points given.

Participants walked away with tangible tools to use.

- Natural options to help horse perform better in any discipline
- Tips on how to relieve horses' tension and muscle aches through massage and acupressure
- How to boost a horse's immune system and prepare for ride or show season

Smelling the oils is part of the Raindrop Technique process

Leggs enjoying his Raindrop Technique. It will boost his immune system, great for the start of show season.

The Raindrop Technique often relaxes a horse, Leggs is no exception.
